

25 Years in Business

This month, April 2017, marks 25 years in business for Concord Sport & Spine Physiotherapy.

Paul Monaro started practicing from 202 Concord Road in April 1992, under the name Concord Road Sports Injuries & Physiotherapy.

Paul has 31 years of experience as a physiotherapist, with post graduate qualifications in Sports Physiotherapy, and in Musculoskeletal Physiotherapy.

Claudia Aliberti has over 20 years of clinical experience, and postgraduate qualifications in Musculoskeletal Physiotherapy.

Paul has particular interests in:

- Low back pain
- Knee rehabilitation
- Lateral hip pain
- Neck pain
- Sporting Injuries
- Management of tendinopathies including:
Rotator cuff, elbow, hip, hamstring origin, patellar, Achilles

Claudia has particular interests in:

- Neck pain
- Neck-related headaches
- Whiplash
- Low Back pain
- Sports, particularly dance injuries
- Neural & referred pain syndromes
- Preventative health measures

We are open from 7am, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, closing at 6pm.
On Tuesdays & Thursdays we close at 7.30pm.